COUNTERCLAIM I

(Tortious Appropriation of Property Rights in Trade Dress)

Now comes the Defendants and allege:

1. On or about April, 2004, and in the duration thereafter, Plaintiff CSA placed numerous orders with Defendant Keepjoy for certain ceramic products that are the subject matter of the instant case. See Exhibit A for part of the orders.
2. Upon information and belief, Defendant Keepjoy was responsible for designing the shape of the products and hand-made drawings on the products(Trade Dress).

3. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff only had the name Temp-tations stamped on the bottom of the products.
4. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff has sold or will sell the ordered products to a third party.
5. Such business relationship between Plaintiff and Defendant Keepjoy lasted until end of the year 2006.
6. On or about July 25, 2006, Defendant Keepjoy, through its employee Wei Xiangbin, filed patent applications with the State Intellectual Property Office of the People's Republic of China for the design and hand-made drawings of some of the products(subject matter) that Plaintiff ordered from Defendant Keepjoy. See Exhibit B.
7. Upon information and belief, during the time when Defendant's patent applications were pending, Plaintiff attempted to purchase said property rights in the trade dress which is the subject matter of the instant case.
8. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff's attempt was unsuccessful due to certain restrictions set by the Chinese authority, among other reasons.
9. On or about March 14, 2008, Plaintiff filed a complaint with the Supreme Court of the State of New York County of Orange, claiming trade dress infringement by Defendants, including other claims that are based on it.
10. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff knew or should have known that Defendant Keepjoy filed patent applications with the State Intellectual Property Office of the People's Republic of China for the design and drawings of the products(subject matter).

11. Plaintiff has willfully and intentionally appropriated Defendant's intellectual property rights by filing an action and claimed such rights.
12. Plaintiff's conduct has caused damages to Defendant's reputation and business.
13. Defendant is entitled to an injunctive relief to enjoin Plaintiff from further profiting from Defendant's property rights in trade dress(design and hand-made drawings) under the Lanham Act §43 and at common law of the State of New York..

COUNTERCLAIM II

(Breach of Contract)

14. Defendant realleges and incorporates each and every foregoing paragraph as if fully set forth herein.
15. In the duration of the business relationship between the parties, Plaintiff ordered about $5,254,003 worth of the products from Defendant Keepjoy. See Exhibit C for a summary of the transactions.
16. Plaintiff only paid $4,732,627 to Defendant Keepjoy. Plaintiff still owes Defendant the balance in the amount of $522,376 for the products Keepjoy shipped to Plaintiff.
17. Plaintiff breached the contract between the parties by failing to pay the contract price.
18. Plaintiff is unjustly enriched by such nonpayment.
19. Defendant is entitled to the payment in the amount of $522,376, plus interest for both pre- and after-judgment.

Wherefore Defendants demand:

1. That the Court dismiss the Plaintiff's complaint against Defendant Lily Lee as an individual.
2. That the Court dismiss the Plaintiff's complaint against Defendant Keepjoy Industrial Company, Ltd.
3. That the Court dismiss the Plaintiff's complaint against other nonexistent defendants which were created solely by Plaintiff out of some nonexistent Wonderland or Utopia.
4. That the Court order the Plaintiff to cease to utilize Defendant Keepjoy's property rights in trade dress.
5. That the Court order the Plaintiff to pay Defendant Keepjoy the balance of the contract price in the amount of $5,254,003, plus pre- and after-judgment interest.
6. That the Court award to Defendants Keepjoy and Lily Lee as an individual costs and attorney fees for this law suit.
7. That the Court award to the Defendants such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

10. Chlorophyll a and Chlorophyll b were determined using a spectrophotometer (Shimadzu UV-1601) at 663 nm and 646 nm, respectively. The concentrations were calculated using the following equations:  $\text{Chlorophyll } a = 11.85 \times \text{OD}_{663} - 1.54 \times \text{OD}_{646}$  and  $\text{Chlorophyll } b = 22.9 \times \text{OD}_{646} - 4.68 \times \text{OD}_{663}$  (Arar and Parsons 1992).

1. CONCLUSIONS The results of the present study indicate that the use of the proposed model for the prediction of the shear capacity of RC beams is more accurate than the existing models. The proposed model can be used to predict the shear capacity of RC beams with different parameters. The proposed model can be used to predict the shear capacity of RC beams with different parameters. The proposed model can be used to predict the shear capacity of RC beams with different parameters.

Figure 1 shows the chemical structures of two compounds. Structure 1 is 1,2,3,4-tetrahydro-6-methyl-5H-benzothiazepine, which consists of a benzene ring fused to a thiazepine ring, with a methyl group at position 6. Structure 2 is 1,2,3,4-tetrahydro-6-methyl-5H-benzothiazepine, which is similar to structure 1 but has a hydroxyl group at position 5.

Notification for Accepting the Patent Application

Acting under the provision of Article 28 of the Patent Law of China and Article 39, 40 of Rules for the Implementation of the Patent Law of China, the State Intellectual Property Office (SIPO) has accepted the application for patent by the applicant. The application number and date are confirmed and therewith notified as:

Application Number: 200630124449.5
Application Date: 21 July 2006
Applicant: Wei Xiangbin

Title for the design: Plate (KJ-01)

After verification, the Patent Office of SIPO confirms to have accepted the following documents:

Design Patent Application Letter: copies: 2, pages: 2 for each copy
Design's Picture or Photograph: copies: 2, pages: 2 for each copy
Fees Cut Application: copy: 1, page: 1 for each copy

Explanation:

1. Under the provision of Article 28 of the Patent Law, if the application documents are sent through postal service, the postmark date of sending will be regarded as application date. If there is any discrepancy in this case, the applicant can submit a petition with the registered post counterfoil to the Administrative Department of Patent Office of SIPO to request for a correction.
2. The application number is the code name granted by the SIPO to each accepted application for patent, and as the most effective identification symbol for this application. When the procedures are handled, this number should be marked correctly and clearly.
3. Any document or remittance sent to the inspector personally bear no legal effect.
4. Any intermediate document, sub-case application, and application for native priority should be sent directly to the Administrative Department of Patent Office of SIPO.

Under the provision of Article 91 of the Rules for the Implementation of the Patent Law, when the applicant pays for the fees charged by the Patent Office of SIPO, correct application or patent number and names of fees should be marked correctly, without which will be treated as fees unpaid.

Notification for Accepting the Patent Application

Acting under the provision of Article 28 of the Patent Law of China and Article 39, 40 of Rules for the Implementation of the Patent Law of China, the State Intellectual Property Office (SIPO) has accepted the application for patent by the applicant. The application number and date are confirmed and therewith notified as:

Application Number: 200630124439.1
Application Date: 21 July 2006
Applicant: Wei Xiangbin

Title for the design: Plate (KJ-10)

After verification, the Patent Office of SIPO confirms to have accepted the following documents:

Design Patent Application Letter: copies: 2, pages: 2 for each copy
Design's Picture or Photograph: copies: 2, pages: 2 for each copy
Fees Cut Application: copy:1, page:1 for each copy

Explanation:

1. Under the provision of Article 28 of the Patent Law, if the application documents are sent through postal service, the postmark date of sending will be regarded as application date. If there is any discrepancy in this case, the applicant can submit a petition with the registered post counterfoil to the Administrative Department of Patent Office of SIPO to request for a correction.
2. The application number is the code name granted by the SIPO to each accepted application for patent, and as the most effective identification symbol for this application. When the procedures are handled, this number should be marked correctly and clearly.
3. Any document or remittance sent to the inspector personally bear no legal effect.
4. Any intermediate document, sub-case application, and application for native priority should be sent directly to the Administrative Department of Patent Office of SIPO.

Under the provision of Article 91 of the Rules for the Implementation of the Patent Law, when the applicant pays for the fees charged by the Patent Office of SIPO, correct application or patent number and names of fees should be marked correctly, without which will be treated as fees unpaid.

Explanation:

1. Under the provision of Article 28 of the Patent Law, if the application documents are sent through postal service, the postmark date of sending will be regarded as application date. If there is any discrepancy in this case, the applicant can submit a petition with the registered post counterfoil to the Administrative Department of Patent Office of SIPO to request for a correction.
2. The application number is the code name granted by the SIPO to each accepted application for patent, and as the most effective identification symbol for this application. When the procedures are handled, this number should be marked correctly and clearly.
3. Any document or remittance sent to the inspector personally bear no legal effect.
4. Any intermediate document, sub-case application, and application for native priority should be sent directly to the Administrative Department of Patent Office of SIPO.

Under the provision of Article 91 of the Rules for the Implementation of the Patent Law, when the applicant pays for the fees charged by the Patent Office of SIPO, correct application or patent number and names of fees should be marked correctly, without which will be treated as fees unpaid.
